1. At the end of January 1953, the pharmacy at Wolsztyn (Wollstein) received some cases to be held at the disposal of the Ministry of National Defense; these cases were sent by Centrofarm, with instructions to store them in a dry place. Each case is marked "MOB" and has a list of contents attached. This list includes surgical dressings and medicines for first aid use. Each case contains a set of supplies and these supplies are the same in all the cases. Similar cases had been received by the pharmacies in Poznan and one pharmacy in Gdynia.
2. At the end of January the hospitals in Wroclaw (Breslau) and Wolsztyn received a letter from the Ministry of Health in Warsaw ordering them to describe their respective establishment in accordance with the points set out in the letter. Among the questions asked were the following:
  - a. Present number of beds.
  - b. Possibilities of increasing the number of beds.
  - c. Number of operating amphitheatres and surgeries (sale opatrunkowe).
  - d. Possibilities of increasing these.
  - e. Number of doctors and nurses.
  - f. Possibilities of accommodating additional doctors and nurses without reducing space facilities for patients.
  - g. Condition of the buildings and material from which the hospital is constructed.
  - h. Wooded spaces in the immediate vicinity of the hospital.
  - i. Distance from the nearest railroad station.

Since the letter was a form letter, though addressed individually to each hospital.
 the same letter was sent to other hospitals as well.
